Save time and money, by being helped by a trilingual personal assistant to get permits, buying/renting equipment, shopping, exchanging money, etc. in Mendoza City.

½ Day (morning or evening 4h)	$90
Full Day (8hs)	$140

Certified Guides

All our guides are bilingual professionals who have obtained their degree from the AAGM or the EPGAMT (2 and 3 year careers). We believe that one of the keys for having a successful expedition is to count on people who have the best qualifications and at least 5 years of experience in Aconcagua to provide safety and trek across the paths of nature with conviction and professionalism. The guide's equipments include a VHF radio, first aid kit with the specific medications for altitude sicknesses, ropes, altimeter, digital oxymeter and professional clothing and equipments. Each guide may assist up to 4 people in high altitude camps (his meals are not included), the meals for the guides at the Base Camp are included in these prices. Guide's prices for Normal Route, Polish Traverse Route, and Two Faces Route. For Polish Direct Route please consult.

Very important

Acomara does not guarantee availability of services that have not been booked in advance. These are internet early booking prices, they are always lower than the prices of the same services hired in our offices in Mendoza City. The services are subject to availability at time of booking. You may book your services writing us to info@aconcaguaexpeditions.com.

Cancellation policy and refunds of portages and logistic services

All cancellations and refunds requests will have to be requested to info@aconcaguaexpeditions.com in writing. Although we are always available to attend you personally, we demand this formality to be exclusively fulfilled in all cases. Requests carried on by other means will not be taken as valid.

Cancellations made with a minimum of 30 days before the beginning of the program will generate a credit in favor of the client of 100% of the amount paid as an advance and/or payment.

Cancellations made between 1 and 30 days before the beginning of the program will generate a credit in favor of the client of 80% of the amount paid as an advance and/or payment.

Cancellations made with less than 24h of anticipation to the beginning of the program will generate a credit in favor of the client of 20% of the amount paid as an advance and/or payment.

In case of delayed flights or any other reason, if the client is not present on the first day of the program, he/she should inform info@aconcaguaexpeditions.com by email, requesting a modification of the services previously booked. Additional costs might be applied according to the services the client desires, all additional costs will be applied according to the current rate at the moment of requesting the additional services, special prices, early booking prices, and similar offers will not be valid. In case the client, for any reason, is not present on the first day of the itinerary or does not inform the company about changes on his/her services, "no show" will apply and a 100% cancellation fee will be charged upon the cancelled services and the client will not be able to request any credit or refund.

For transferring credit to someone else, the client must inform this from his/her own email address to info@aconcaguaexpeditions.com, sending the personal information of the person to whom the client decides to transfer his/her credit. Credits of non-used optional services will have a validity of one year, from the moment the credit was generated.

In case the client demands a refund, it will be deposited exclusively to the client's PayPal account, over a period of 15 days from the date it was properly requested to info@aconcaguaexpeditions.com in writing, as long as the refund request agrees with the conditions written above. Acomara will refund up to a maximum of fifty per cent of the available credit. Once the client receives the money on his/her account, the credit will no longer be valid. Acomara will pay all transference fees. Refunds will not be in cash at the end of the expedition. There will be no refunds neither credit for services cancelled on the mountain or after the trek.
